Rev. Gillihan to Keytesville

Rev. Frank R. Gillihan, who for the past year has served as pastor of the Brunswick Christian Church, has resigned his work here, and preparing to move to move to Keytesville in the near future. He has accepted half time with Keytesville and Salisbury Christian churches, and expects to take up his work at the first of September. Rev. and Mrs. Gillihan have made many friends during their residence in Brunswick, and we regret that they have decided to go elsewhere. Rev. Gillihan is an able preacher and an untiring worker, and we have no doubt his work in Keytesville and Salisbury will result in much good to the people of those communities.

Corn Crop

Last week we estimated the corn crop at 65 per cent of an average but this week it appears that we will not have in this county more than 30 per cent of a crop if that. The hot winds up to Thursday have simply burned vegetation of all kinds and made life miserable for all living things. The dust is frightful and the change of the atmosphere Thursday morning to cooler was hailed with delight.

There is considerable wheat and oats yet in the county some in stacks to be threshed.

BLACK'S EUROPEAN ORCHESTRA

Joseph Black's reputation as a violinist and orchestra conductor was gained first in Europe, playing in Vienna, Budapest, Hamburg, Monte Carlo, Paris and London, and later in this country in the musical centers of our great cities. Mr. Black is a musician of true temperament and vivid emotions. He conducts, as he plays, with sympathetic understanding of the works of the great composers. His ability to interpret the folk-songs, musical legends and masterpieces of the Hungarian Gypsy music is remarkable. Mr. Black and his orchestra of artists will be heard in two concerts on the opening day of Chautauqua.

DE JEU, Magician, on Local Program

At least one part of the big Chautauqua program has been planned principally for the children. (Ages six to sixty, and upwards.) De Jeu, the noted magician and prestidigitator, is coming with a great array of mysterious and hair-raising tricks and stunts, turning the Chautauqua stage into a fairyland peopled with the fantastic creations of his occult skill.

Some of the most marvelous feats of magic, mind-reading, telepathy and legerdemain will be demonstrated.

De Jeu is a wonderful entertainer. He, with his assistant, will appear in two programs, preceding the afternoon and night lectures, on the fifth day of Chautauqua. This will be Children's Day.

CHAUTAUQUA AND THE WAR.

The weapons which win victory for democracy include more than the physical equipment for conflict. They embrace the brain power, the thought power, the will power, the spiritual energy of a people. Whatsoever conserves and directs these vital forces in this grave hour serves humanity. President Wilson has called the Chautauqua to this service. Its lectures, he says, are "effective messengers for the delivery and interpretation of democracy's meaning and imperative needs." The work it is doing, "has not lost importance because of war, but rather has gained new opportunities for service."

West Virginia in Liquor Business

Special to the Washington Post.

Baltimore.—Virginia prohibitionists are as thirsty as they are practical. They have a state law which prohibits the importation or sale of liquor by either a citizen or outsider, but they enacted still another law which permits the state to dispose of the stuff to individual drinkers living without its boundaries. In enacting this law, however, they gave no consideration to the tax feature.

Under the original law the authorities seized quantities of liquor to be destroyed, but on second thought this was considered unbusinesslike. So they amended the law permitting sale of the confiscated liquor only to individuals outside of the state. To avoid going on record as being in the liquor business, which also necessitated a wholesaler's license, the state quietly sold the lot to an agent for a dealer in Baltimore, and a consignment of 22 barrels, 7 boxes and 145 cases of good and bad rye arrived at a Baltimore dock a few days since.

The sale was effected by representing the liquor as tax free, but when the internal revenue office held up the consignment

END STOMACH TROUBLE. GASES OR DYSPEPSIA

"Pape's Diaphragm" makes sick, sour, gassy stomachs surely feel fine in five minutes.

If what you just ate is souring on your stomach or lies like a lump of lead, or you belch gas and eructate sour, undigested food, or have a feeling of dizziness, heartburn, fullness, nausea, bad taste in mouth and stomach-headache, you can get relief in five minutes by neutralizing acidity. Put an end to such stomach distress now by getting a large fifty-cent case of Pape's Diaphragm from any drug store. You realize in five minutes how needless it is to suffer from indigestion, dyspepsia or any stomach disorder caused by food fermentation due to excessive acid in stomach.

Through heat and smoke I seem to see
The drinks I sipped at home,
Vanilla, lemon, strawberry,
A-drip with fizz and foam,
Each with a dewy silver spoon
Against the glass to clink,
And generous lump of frozen cream—
Oh! what a dandy drink!

When we have cleaned the Germans up,
Which we are here to do,
And brought the Kaiser back with us
And put him in a zoo,
Give me no medal, Uncle Sam,
To make beholders blink,
But all the soda frothy cold,
That I can ever drink.

Dr. Beatty's Sermon Sunday

Dr. Beatty Jefferson City preached to a small congregation at the Presbyterian church Sunday a sermon which furnished much good food for thought.

Dr. Beatty took up the existing social, economic, political and religious condition and demonstrated their complete unfitness and argued conclusively that the inevitable change in each must be based on biblical teaching to be abiding. He contended that in the home and in religious colleges true religion should be inculcated and could only be infused into life of crystalizing manhood and womanhood properly in the home and at institutions presided over by truly religious teachers. The Doctor expressed the belief that because of the divergence of thought and teachings of christianity, the awful war resulted. He insisted that in the reconstruction period after the close of the war, all social, economic, religious and governmental rules be squared by the bible or they could not be permanent, and he dreaded the contests which would likely be resultant from the effort to democratize the world by establishing true religion. Dr. Beatty declared a state of unrest in the religious world existed everywhere and to that is attributable the chaotic condition of society. He feels that by a true conception of man's relationship to his Creator, to be instilled thru the teaching of parents and institutions of learning wherein the teachers are duly qualified to teach, the establishment of world security and peace can be assured, but he does not believe in teaching religion in the average school.
